

Mr. Tarica Mpinga is a finance professional with over 20 years of experience in originating, structuring, executing, and financing a diverse range of transactions, including debt structuring, initial public offerings (IPOs), secondary placements, mergers and acquisitions (M&A), and strategic investments.

His career includes roles at the Bank of Montreal (BMO Capital), where he focused on investment and corporate banking. He also spent a decade at Canaccord Genuity in London, working on transactions in Africa's energy and natural resources sectors. In 2017, he founded Righini Limited, an advisory and investment firm.

Throughout his career, Tarica has successfully originated, negotiated, and executed transactions exceeding US$10 billion in the natural resources sector.